

Amphibians & Reptiles of the UWM Field Station
Frogs and Toads
	American Toad	Bufo americanus	C
	Gray Treefrog	Hyla versicolor	C
	Spring Peeper	Pseudacris crucifer	C
	Western Chorus Frog	Pseudacris triseriata	C
	American Bullfrog	Rana catesbeiana	?
	Green Frog	Rana clamitans	C
	Northern Leopard Frog	Rana pipiens	C
	Wood Frog	Rana sylvatica	C
Salamanders
	Blue-spotted Salamander	Ambystoma laterale	C
	Spotted Salamander	Ambystoma maculatum	?
	Tiger Salamander	Ambystoma tigrinum	C
	Central Newt	Notophthalmus viridescens	U
Snakes
	Eastern Milksnake	Lampropeltis triangulum	C
	Northern Watersnake	Nerodia sipedon	R
	Midland Brownsnake	Storeria dekayi	U
	Red-bellied Snake	Storeria occipitomaculata	U
	Butler's Gartersnake	Thamnophis butleri	U
	Common Gartersnake	Thamnophis sirtalis	C
Turtles
	Snapping Turtle	Chelydra serpentina	C
	Painted Turtle	Chrysemys picta	C
	Blanding's Turtle	Emydoidea blandingii	R
	C = common
	U = uncommon
	R = rare
	? = documented at Field Station, current status unknown
Source:
Casper, G. S. 2007. On the herpetofaunal history of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Field Station (Ozaukee County, Wisconsin). Bull. Chicago Herp. Soc. 42:21-30.			